SECTION – VI

Government and the Commission

A. NON ACCEPTANCE OF COMMISSION'S ADVICE:

During the year under report, the Government have deviated from the Commission's advice in three cases. The details are as follows:

Case –I

(G.O.2(D) No.54, Home (SC) Department, dated 16.2.2005)

During September 2001, the Government had sought the views of the Commission as to the orders to be passed on the disciplinary action initiated against Thiru. N. Namasivayam, formerly Deputy Director of Fire & Rescue Services, Coimbatore for the substantiated allegation of demand and acceptance of bribe. The Commission, after examining the case in detail, in its letter dated 29.9.2003 offered its views as follows:-

> "The observation of Commissioner for Disciplinary proceedings on this aspect which is available at p.62 of the Commissioner for Disciplinary proceedings report is just and correct and therefore there is no need to deviate from the findings of the Commissioner for Disciplinary proceedings that charge is proved based on the theory of preponderance of probability. The Commission, therefore concludes that both the charges framed against the delinquent Officer are proved and finds no reason to deviate from the punishment proposed by the Government, i.e. Compulsory retirement on delinquent Officer with full compensatory pension and gratuity as eligible on the date of compulsory retirement under pension Rule 39(1)".

The Government have now issued orders imposing the punishment of compulsory retirement from service on Thiru. N. Namasivayam and granting him only 2/3rd of his eligible pension, as granting full pension and gratuity would nullify the impact of the compulsory retirement. Therefore, the Government issued orders deviating from the views of the Commission.

Case -2

(G.O. 3(D) No.44, Home (Prison I) Department, Dated 28.4.2005)

In the case relating to the disciplinary action against Thiru. K. Vidyasagar, Deputy Inspector General of Prisons on charges of misappropriating wealth disproportionate to his known sources of income, the Government arrived at a provisional conclusion to impose a punishment of cut in pension of Rs.100/- per month for a period of one year and sought the views of the Commission in October 1993.

The Commission advised the Government to exonerate the Delinquent Officer from the charges on benefit of doubt. But the Government replied that the benefit of doubt would apply to criminal cases and that the preponderance of probability would apply to departmental cases and sought revised views of the Commission in November 1996. The Commission then advised the Government to impose the punishment of cut in pension Rs.250/- per month permanently for life instead of Rs.100/- per month for one year on the Delinquent Officer as was proposed in the show-cause notice.

Thereafter the Government stated that the case of the Delinquent Officer did not relate to any pecuniary loss, to Government and as such the punishment of recovery of an indefinite amount as suggested by the Commission was not admissible under pension rules and that the punishment of cut in pension of Rs.100/- per month for a period of one year alone could be imposed as the highest punishment and therefore again sought for the revised views of the Commission.

But the Commission in its views dated 19.9.2001 stated that the Government's opinion viz the punishment of cut in pension would be made permanently only in cases where a pecuniary loss to Government is involved was incorrect. Hence the Commission reiterated its earlier views and advised the Government in September 2001 to issue a revised show-cause notice to the Delinquent Officer as to why the punishment of cut in pension of Rs.250/- should not be imposed permanently for life and to proceed further after getting his reply.

The Government have issued orders in G.O. 3(D) No.44 Home (Prison I) Department dated 28.4.05 deviating from the Commission's advice and have imposed the punishment of cut in pension of Rs.250/- per month for 3 years on the Delinquent Officer for the proven charges.

The Commission advised the Government to impose the punishment of cut in pension of Rs.250/- per month permanently for life. But the Government have issued orders deviating from the Commission's advice.

Case -3

(G.O. 2(D) No.487, Home (SC) Department, dated 9.11.05

In June 2005, the Government sought the views of the Commission as to the orders to be passed on the Review Petition preferred by Thiru.K. Premkumar, Superintendent of Police against the punishment of stoppage of increment for two years with cumulative effect imposed on him by the Government for the charges that he had absconded from the Court Proceedings which resulted in the issuance of Non-Bailable warrants against him and for having adopted dilatory tactics causing abnormal delay in conducting the trial in SC No.169/83 before the III Additional Assistant Sessions Court, Madurai and for having made incorrect and false statements in the C.O.P.No.6693/2000 filed by him to quash the proceedings in SC No.169/1983 pending before III Additional Assistant Sessions Judge, Madurai, and for having misled the Hon'ble High Court of Madras and committed perjury, which resulted in passing of sharp adverse comments against him and imposing on him a fine of Rs.10,000/- as costs by the High Court, Madras and thereby having failed to maintain absolute integrity, devotion to duty and acted in a manner of unbecoming of a member of the Tamil Nadu Civil Services and thus contravening Rule 20(1) of the Tamil Nadu Government servants conduct Rules, 1973. The Commission after examining the case in detail in its letter dated 18.10.2005 observed that the Review Petitioner has not put forth any valid points to be considered as worthy for consideration and that the Review Petitioner who is the custodian of law has taken the law in his hand and played a brutal role in this case since the Government had already taken a very lenient view by awarding a lesser punishment the Commission advised the Government to reject the review petition of the Review Petitioner.

However, the Government have issued orders setting aside the punishment of stoppage of increment for two years with cumulative effect imposed on the review petitioner in deviation from the Commission's advice.

Considering the gravity of the delinquencies committed by the review petitioner, the Commission advised the Government to reject his review petition. But the Government have issued orders deviating from the Commission's advice.

B. NON-CONSULTATION WITH THE COMMISSION:

During the year under report, the Government did not consult the Commission in one case. The detail is as follows :-

Case-1

(G.O.Ms.No.337/Finance (Co-operative Audit) Department, dt. 08.09.2005).

The post of Junior Co-operative Auditor in the Directorate of Co-operative Audit is governed by the Adhoc rules issued in G.O.Ms.No.253, Finance (Co-operative Audit), dt. 31.03.86 with reference to Rule 3 (d) of the said rules, the vacancies in the post should be filled up as follows:-

> "Ten percent of the permanent vacancies in the post of Junior Co-operative Auditor shall be filled up by recruitment by transfer and out of these ten percent of the vacancies, six percent shall be reserved for Junior Assistant, three percent for Typist and one percent for Steno-Typist Grade-III. The remaining ninety percent of the vacancies shall be filled up by direct recruitment".

The Government have issued orders in G.O. Ms.No.337, Finance (Co-operative Audit), Dept. dated 8.9.2005, that rule 3 (d) of the adhoc rules for the post of Junior Co-operative Auditor in the Tamil Nadu Co-operative subordinate Service be relaxed as one time measure for the panel due on 1.10.2004 only in order to fill up the vacancies of Junior Co-operative Auditor in the Department of Co-operative Audit by recruitment by transfer and that this order will cease to exist after this panel is approved.

The Commission should have been consulted before any decision affecting the methods of appointment or principles followed in making appointment to posts within its purview is taken. But the Commission was not consulted before the issue of orders in the above said. G.O. The Government were therefore requested to state the reason for not obtaining the Commission's concurrence before the issue of the orders.

The Government have stated that despite the fact, that the concurrence of the Commission is required in this case, it was left by oversight and that this may result in embarrassment to the Commission which may be regretted, that this kind of occurrence will not happen in future, and that Commission's concurrence be obtained wherever necessary.

C. Details of the number of cases in which the Government have not accepted the Commission's advice and the number of cases in which Government have not consulted the Commission are given for the latest five years in Annexure - XII.
